Background

The PIMCO Group entities are all members of the Allianz Group and the PIMCO Group entities set out in this document have signed up to comply with the Allianz Binding Corporate Rules. The Allianz Binding Corporate Rules provide information on the rules governing the international transfer of personal data between PIMCO Group companies (as well as other Allianz Group companies) operating in the European Economic Area (EEA) and PIMCO Group companies (as well as other Allianz Group companies) outside that area. The Allianz Binding Corporate Rules also describe the rights of data subjects in respect of such transfers, what to do if data subjects want to exercise their rights or complain about such transfers, and how data subjects can contact PIMCO.
