Tax Form	Description
1099-DIV	Reports dividend and capital gain distributions from your PIMCO funds, excluding retirement plan accounts. Tax–exempt income dividends paid by certain PIMCO municipal funds are reported in Box 11 of your 2020 1099–DIV. Any private activity bond interest, which may be subject to the alternative minimum tax (AMT), is in Box 12.
1099-B	Reports redemption proceeds, including exchanges out, of any non-money market funds in your non-retirement account. Your cost or other basis for shares that were sold and fall under the IRS's cost basis regulations is included on this form in Box 1e. This information is required to be reported to the IRS by PIMCO. If your shares have been transferred to PIMCO or have been converted, we may not be able to provide this cost basis information to you. For general information about cost basis and the regulations, see below or visit pimco.com/cost-basis.
1099-R	Reports any distributions (including rollovers, recharacterizations and conversions) taken from a retirement plan, such as an IRA, or any qualified retirement plan, such as a pension, profit sharing, 401(k) plan or tax–deferred annuity.

Dividend and Capital Gain Distributions FAQ

Q: WHAT ARE DISTRIBUTIONS AND WHY ARE THEY PAID?

A: Fund distributions are earnings from the fund's operations. The law requires that all profits be passed on to the fund's investors in order for the fund to qualify for special tax rules afforded to funds that benefit the shareholder.

Q: WHAT IS A CAPITAL GAIN DISTRIBUTION?

A: When a fund sells portfolio securities at a profit, the sale creates a capital gain. Two types of capital gains are realized by PIMCO funds – short–term and long–term. Net short– term capital gains are distributed to shareholders as income dividends and are taxed at ordinary income tax rates. For 2020, long–term capital gain distributions are taxed at a maximum effective rate of 23.8% (20% maximum long–term capital gain rate plus 3.8% Medicare tax).

Q: HOW IS A FUND AFFECTED IF THERE IS NO REQUIRED DISTRIBUTION?

A: If a distribution is not required, there are no tax consequences to shareholders or to the fund. If the fund has not made a taxable distribution, shareholders will not receive a Form 1099–DIV for that fund.

Q: HOW IS DISTRIBUTION ELIGIBILITY DETERMINED FOR PIMCO FUNDS?

- A: The timing of a distribution, and the determination of shareholder eligibility to receive it, is based on the record date, ex–dividend date, reinvestment date and payable date which are typically defined as follows:
- Record Date: Purchases through this day are eligible to receive the distribution. Shares redeemed on this day are not eligible to receive the distribution.
- Ex-Dividend Date: The date on which the distribution amount per share is deducted from the fund's NAV per share.

- Reinvestment Date: The date on which the distribution proceeds will be reinvested, if so elected, in additional PIMCO fund shares. Shares will settle on the payable date.
- Payable Date: The fund pays shareholders their proportional amount of any distribution on this date. For PIMCO funds, the payable date for distributions paid in cash, if so elected, is normally the same business day as the ex-dividend date, except for those funds with daily income distributions.
 PIMCO fund shares purchased with reinvested distributions are usually credited on the reinvestment date.

Cost Basis Regulation

A rule went into effect on January 1, 2012, requiring funds to report cost basis information to shareholders and to the IRS for "covered shares," or those shares purchased on or after January 1, 2012. When filing your tax return, you will be required to use the cost basis reported in Box 1e of Form 1099–B to calculate and report the gains and losses from your covered shares to the IRS. Please note that retirement accounts are excluded from the cost basis requirements.

For more information about the cost basis requirements, we encourage you to speak with your financial advisor or a tax professional. For general information about cost basis and the regulations, visit pimco.com/cost-basis.

2020 Income from U.S. Government Obligations

Certain PIMCO funds may have earned a portion of their income from U.S. government securities. All or part of the interest on these securities may be exempt from state and/or local taxation. Please consult a tax professional as laws in various jurisdictions may differ. The table below reflects the percentage of ordinary dividends derived from U.S. government securities.

For the benefit of our corporate shareholders, we have also included the percentage of dividends that qualify for the corporate dividends-received deduction, assuming holding period requirements have been met.

2020 Foreign Tax Credit Information

Below is a summary of the percent of foreign source income earned and the percent of qualified foreign dividends deemed paid by PIMCO RAE Global Fund, PIMCO RAE Global ex–US Fund, PIMCO RAE Emerging Markets Fund, and PIMCO RAE International Fund. For 2020, these funds represent the funds for which PIMCO elects to pass through foreign taxes paid to shareholders. If a fund is not listed below, PIMCO does not elect to pass through foreign taxes paid to shareholders this year.

Your share of the foreign taxes paid can be used as a tax credit or a deduction from income on your personal tax return. Please consult a tax professional to determine whether you qualify for the foreign tax credit or deduction.

If you choose to claim the foreign tax credit, you may be required to file Form 1116, Foreign Tax Credit, with your federal income tax return if your credit exceeds a de minimis threshold. Your share of "Foreign Taxes Paid" is included in Box 7 of your 2020 Form 1099–DIV. The information below can help you compute your foreign tax credit.

2020 Municipal Bond Fund Information

This section contains additional tax–related information for shareholders of one or more of the below PIMCO municipal bond and tax–managed funds for 2020.

At least 50% of the value of a fund's assets must consist of federally tax-exempt obligations at the close of each quarter of a fund's tax year in order for a fund to pass through the tax-exempt character of its income to shareholders. For all funds that qualified in 2020, the charts below and on pages 8 through 11 provide (1) the blended percentage of each fund's dividends paid in 2020 that was taxable, (2) the percentage of each fund's 2020 income that was derived from private activity bonds and subject to the alternative minimum tax (AMT), and (3) the breakdown of each fund's tax–exempt interest income by state.

Note that any capital gains distributed by the funds during 2020 are taxable. Short-term capital gains are reported in Box 1a of Form 1099–DIV as ordinary dividends and long-term capital gains are reported in Box 2a.

We suggest that you consult a tax professional or call your state's tax inquiry center to determine how this information may apply to your particular tax situation.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the funds carefully before investing. This and other information are contained in the fund's prospectus and summary prospectus, if available, which may be obtained by contacting your investment professional or PIMCO representative or by visiting www.pimco.com.

Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. After the initial public offering, shares are sold on the open market through a stock exchange. Investment policies, management fees and other matters of interest to prospective investors may be found in each closed-end fund annual and semi-annual report. For additional information, please contact your investment professional.

It is important to note that differences exist between the fund's daily internal accounting records, the fund's financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and record keeping practices under income tax regulations. It is possible that the fund may not issue a Section 19 Notice in situations where the fund's financial statements prepared later and in accordance with U.S. GAAP or the final tax character of those distributions might later report that the sources of those distributions included capital gains and/or a return of capital. Please see the fund's most recent shareholder report for more details.

PIMCO does not provide legal or tax advice. Please consult your tax and/or legal counsel for specific tax or legal questions and concerns. The discussion herein is general in nature and is provided for informational purposes only. There is no guarantee as to its accuracy or completeness. Any tax statements contained herein are not intended or written to be used, and cannot be relied upon or used for the purpose of avoiding penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service or state and local tax authorities. Individuals should consult their own legal and tax counsel as to matters discussed herein.

The interval fund's distribution rate may be affected by numerous factors, including changes in realized and projected market returns, fund performance, and other factors. There can be no assurance that a change in market conditions or other factors will not result in a change in the fund distribution rate at a future time.

The actual amounts and composition of distributions for tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during its entire fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. Final determination of a distribution's tax character will be reported on Form 1099 DIV sent to shareholders for the calendar year.

For risks associated with a particular Fund, please refer to the Fund's prospectus.
